

Colombia as the Starting Point

Once again, Venoco lubricants will be available in regional markets in Latin America and the Caribbean.

As of January 2016, backed by the experience Venoco has gathered since 1960 in providing the most complete line of lubricating oils and greases, Venoco Colombia SAS, headquartered in Barranquilla, department of Atlántico, will commercialize in the Colombian market the famous brand that in 2014 gained 28% of the Venezuelan market, compared to more than 15 brands, such as PDVSA and international brands Shell, Exxon Mobil, Texaco, BP and Castrol.
